Summary: This early symbol of America is the cornerstone for our ideals of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; the foundation of our democratic nation. "Symbols" and "rights" are defined and discussed. This program places the Boston Tea Party, the Continental Congress, Samuel Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and the French and Indian War in the context of the writing of the Declaration of Independence.

The INFOhio Digital Video Collection is available to all Ohio K-12 schools at no cost to districts, educators or students. This collection was made possible, in part, through a Library Services and Technology Act grant awarded to the AMCs by the State Library of Ohio. Funding to maintain and increase the DVC is provided by the AMCs. The content does not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the granting agencies.
